

Harvard High School Hall of Fame Nomination Form

Thank you for making a nomination to the Harvard High School Hall of Fame! Harvard High School and the Harvard Community Education Foundation has partnered to recognize Harvard High School alumni who have achieved notable success in their lives. Alumni who can be positive role models and provide inspiration to D50 students to achieve great things after graduation.

We are currently taking nominations for the Hall of Fame class. To be eligible for nomination to the Hall of Fame, a candidate must have graduated from Harvard High School ten or more years prior to the nomination date and must meet one or more of the criteria listed on the application form. (Candidates currently employed by District 50 or serving on the Foundation Board of Directors are discouraged.)

Up to four candidates will be selected from the nominations received. Hall of Fame inductees will be honored at a student assembly in late fall and in a permanent display at the High School. Inductees and a guest will also receive free tickets to the Black & Gold Ball usually held the second week in November.

Send Applications by June 30 via e-mail, FAX, mail or personal delivery to:
